STREET CAR STRIKE COMES TO SUDDEN TERMINATION BY ORDER OF THE COURT

Beachey Defeats Robinson and Ely in the First Long Distance Aerial Flight

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 7.—Lincoln Beachey won the first long distance cross-country aeroplane race ever held in the United States yesterday when he flew from New York to Philadelphia, defeating Hugh Robinson and Eugene Ely.

Beachey's time from Thirty-third street and Broadway, New York, to Ninth and Market streets, Philadelphia, about 99 miles, was two hours and 22-2-4 second. Ely did not finish, being forced to land near Princeton Junction, N. J., because of motor trouble. The race was for a prize of $5000.

The Hudson ascended from Governor's Island, in New York bay, at 2:40 p. m., flew north to Thirty-ninth street, where they were officially timed as they passed over the roof of a department store, then headed to the southwest. Once across the Hudson river, they followed the Pennsylvania tracks. Nearing Brunswick, Ely was forced to land because of engine trouble and Robinson descended, mistaking Brunswick for Trenton. Beachey's engine worked without a skip, and he came down near the Trenton fair grounds for gasoline and oil. In ten minutes he ascended again, followed the railroad tracks to the Delaware river, then turned south for a straightaway sail of 35 miles down the river to Philadelphia.

Near this city he rose high, but as he approached the finish line, dipped several times. He continued to the city hall, where he circled the great tower which rises 547 feet and then fled to Fairmount Park and made a neasy landing. Robinson, who arrived later, after crossing the finish line, flew to the park and alighted.

RELICS OF WASHINGTON

This picture should be seen by everybody and especially the school children.

Stewart and Mercer, the comedy acrobats, made a big hit last night and will be seen in new stunts tonight.

YOUNG ENGINEER ENDS LIFE, SLASHING THROAT

VICTORIA, B. C., Aug. 7.—Second Engineer P. N. Ferguson, aged 31, of the Canadian-Mexican liner Lonsdale, which arrived here last night, committed suicide by cutting his throat July 24. The purser of the steamer tried to save Ferguson's life by sewing the wound with a sail needle, but he died in a few hours. The body was buried at sea.

DEMOCRAT WOULD DEFEND PRES. TAFT

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—Declaring that he desired to defend President Taft because the latter "had no one in his own party to say a word in his behalf," Representative Burnett of Alabama, democrat, said in the house yesterday "that the only trouble with the president is, being honest himself, he is too credulous."

"No honest man, as I believe Mr. Taft," said Mr. Burnett, "ever had such mournful comforts since the days of Job. I have no doubt that his daily prayer is that Messrs. Wickersham and Hitchcock will do as Ballinger did."

Mr. Burnett said Secretary of the Agriculture Wilson was another honest man to fall a victim to bad advisers, and that consequently the downfall of Dr. Wiley "who has so often stood between murderers and the people," had almost been accomplished.

Mandatory Writ for the Road to Run Cars and for Strikers to Man Them

Des Moines People Will Ride Again and Arbitration Will Be Invoked.

DES MOINES, Aug. 7.—Judge Lawrence Degraff issued a mandatory writ of injunction in the district court at 9:45 last night ordering the city railway and its employees to resume car service within a reasonable time.

It is also ordered by the writ that Conductor Hiatt shall be temporarily reinstated pending arbitration. Papers to carry out the provisions of the writ were issued for service upon President Leonard, of the Street Car Men's union, and General Manager Harrigan, of the City Railway company.

Striking street car employees of the Des Moines City railway required just one day in which to rid the city of their ancient enemy, the strikebreaker.

Last night it was announced that every strikebreaker brought to this city from Chicago and Omaha, either had given up his job and gone home, or was in jail to protect himself from violence and would depart hence by the first train today.

Riots, which at times threatened to prove serious, wild hunts for strikebreakers, assaults and broken heads marked a day of intense excitement.

Traffic in the city was completely paralyzed, not a single car having been moved since the men walked out at 1:15 o'clock Saturday morning. In anticipation of further riots, Mayor James R. Hanna this afternoon ordered every saloon in the city closed. They will remain closed throughout the strike.

The mobs sought out the boarding houses of the imported men and were with difficulty prevented from starting pitched battles.

A mob, the worst of the day, surrounded the Iowa hotel during the afternoon and demanded that the strikebreakers under guard there be turned over to it. It was necessary to call out the fire department and put the hose cart into action to disperse the terrible crowds.

Strikebreakers who came in Sunday night from Omaha, were sent to a car barn this morning. They found the crew outside entirely too vicious, and refused to take any chances. In the meantime, the big crowd of union sympathizers cooped them in the barn, without food and little prospects of getting out.

The men became restless and hungry as the day wore on and finally demanded that they be sent back to Omaha.

When a squad of police attempted to escort the strikebreakers to the train, a mob of 100 officers tried to get through the tremendous crowd, but were finally forced to take refuge with their charges in the Iowa hotel. Here the mob gathered again and for three hours kept the police busy.

As follows: Atkinson, 21 to 18; Malley, 21 to 11.

For this evening D. P. Booth and Percy Oaks were scheduled to meet, but Mr. Booth is out of town and may not be back in time for the game.

Ladies' night has been changed from Tuesday to Friday.

PARIS, Aug. 7.—John W. Gates suffered again last evening from an attack of heart failure which necessitated the use of stimulants—caffeine, strychnine and oxygen—to which the heart responded.

OMAHA, Neb., Aug. 7.—Official announcement was made last night that the deal for the sale of the Des Moines Baseball club had been completed and that the team would be on the home grounds Wednesday for 22 straight games. Although the names of the new owners were not made public, it was stated that the club would be owned by two prominent baseball men, William Dwyer, the present manager, will manage the team and the club itself will be immediately strengthened.

JACKSON, Miss., Aug. 7.—That former Governor James K. Vardaman has been chosen the democratic nominee for United States senator—equivalent to election—is conceded by both his opponents in yesterday's primary. In the race for lieutenant governor, the returns indicate victory for State Senator Theodore B. Bilbo. Definite figures will not be available before tomorrow afternoon.

BISHOP FITZGERALD DEAD.

MOUNT EAGLE, Tenn., Aug. 7.—The Right Rev. Oscar Penn Fitzgerald, a bishop of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, died here yesterday, following an illness of several weeks. Death was due to neuralgia of the heart.

Murderer Casey Collapses When Told He Must Hang for His Crime

The action of the state board of pardons in refusing to commute his death sentence to life imprisonment was conveyed to Patrick Casey Saturday afternoon by Warden Ray Baker, of the state penitentiary. Casey was in the condemned cell when visited by Baker, shortly after the pardon board had made known the result. He was informed of the action and immediately collapsed. "My God, but this is awful!" said Casey, with his body shaking with emotion. He collapsed entirely and fell back upon his bed. Then covering his face with his hands he started sobbing. It was several minutes before he could control his emotions, and as soon as he was sufficiently recovered he thanked Warden Baker for the kind treatment received while an inmate of the prison.

Several hours later, after the departure of the warden, Casey sought solace in a Bible and spent the last part of the day reading from the book and praying. Of late he has embraced religion and has joined

Women Drive Automobile Through Avenues of Burning Pines in California Mountains

PASADENA, Cal., Aug. 7.—With hair singed and faces blistered, Mrs. Laura S. Eddy and Miss Margaret Hamers arrived at their homes here yesterday after a wild automobile ride through avenues of burning trees in the San Bernardino mountain forest fires.

The two women, at Pine Crest, a summer resort, waited until the fires were upon them before making up their minds not to stay. Mrs. Eddy then cranked up the automobile, and they started out, running straight through the fire, which surrounded them. Once they stopped to pick up the other women, a man and a little girl who apparently were doomed.

For miles the automobile ran between burning lines of trees. The passengers tied gunnysacks over their heads, first soaking them in water carried in the machine. Forestry service men were amazed at the escape.

MANHATTAN PROPERTIES BUSY MILLING

INTERESTING LETTER TELLING WHAT SOME PROPERTIES ARE DOING.

H. H. Burt, a former Goldfield mining man, who at present is stopping in Tonopah, has received the following interesting letter from a friend in Manhattan:

"Everything here is moving along very nicely. From the large lots they are sending to the mill the small fellow has little if any show. Here is the way it has been going: Bath Bros., 276 tons; Big Four, 1166 tons; John Vujanovich, 225 tons; White Caps, 392 tons; Union No. 9, 200 tons, and now Swanston with 1500 tons of $30. None of this ore has run less than $30 and up to $60. Do those people over there know or realize what this means in big, yellow bars?"

"Your friend Kelley has made a good strike on his lease, Zeb Kendall and associates have struck it on their Jumping Jack lease, Bath Bros. have eight feet of $35 ore in the bottom of their shaft. The White Caps lease will soon initiate their new machinery and can produce 50 tons a day if they want to. Their 392 tons at the mill averaged $49.88 and that is high-grade mill dirt."

BASEBALL CLUB SOLD.

JOHN SCOTT SENTENCED TO ONE YEAR

This morning in the district court Judge Averill sentenced John Scott, who pleaded guilty to forgery, to one year in the penitentiary. Scott passed worthless checks at Rhyolite and the grand jury found a true bill against him. When arraigned Scott pleaded guilty.

TEXAS GOVERNOR AFTER FRAUDULENT VOTERS

AUSTIN, Texas, Aug. 7.—Declaring that he was determined to employ all means to investigate and prosecute alleged frauds in the recent state-wide prohibition election, Governor Colquitt yesterday sent to the legislature a special message asking the body to increase to $17,500 the appropriation for rewards.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 7.—Mrs. Alice Stebbins Wells, who personifies the city's experiment in police women, told in police court on Saturday afternoon how easy it is for a woman to arrest a man.

Thomas Gibbon, night yardmaster for a telephone company, was the prisoner, charged with being a "masher."

"He winked at me in front of the postoffice," said Mrs. Wells. "I was demure and said 'Come with me.' He did so, and when we passed the central station I said, 'Come in.'"

Gibbon pleaded not guilty, asserting that if he winked it was merely the nervous contraction of an eyelid, but that the police woman deliberately winked at him. He was held for trial.
